ESCORT QUEST

---

Morning came.

I slowly opened my eyes.

There is no one other than me.

Laura and Femil is sleeping separately with me.

The reason is that I might attack them if we slept together.

I wore clothes and went out to the corridor.

Femil and Laura are standing there.

“Good morning! Kehma!”

“Good morning. Kehma-sama.....”

Laura was the usual Laura, but Femil was fidgeting.

“This is the morning’s.....panties.....”

She closed her eyes and raised her skirt.

The white panties with pink ribbon was shown in public.

“Auu.....”

She flushed her face and looked very embarrassed, her whole body trembled as well. Her eyelashes which were wet with the tears in the corner of her eyes were the cutest.

“If you’re that embarrassed, you don’t need to push yourself though.....”

“Even so, it is the panties Kehma-sama bought for me, so.....”

How lovable.

On the other hand, Laura was――.

“I’m holding it properly, like a treasure!!!”

She spread the white and blue striped panties with her hands.

Bashi!, I chopped Laura.

“Wear it for God’s sake!!”

“Fumyaan!!”

Laura who was teary eyed said while she held her head with both hands.

“It’s the first present that I got from Kehma, so I don’t want to make it dirty.....”

The idiot goddess was an idiot but lovable.

“Oppositely, I think that wearing it is for the best, since he bought it for us.....pyon.”

“That’s why we decided with the two of us.”

“We thought that there might be a balance, if I wear it, and Laura-san does not.....”

“.....I see.”

There were so many things that are somewhat wrong, but I felt that I shouldn’t mind it because it was that much.

I stopped pointing that out, and we went to the Guild.

Although, Femil can already take care of herself, so we’re planning on taking different quests.

“Hello, Kehma-san.”

When we arrived at the Guild, the receptionist Onee-san called out to me.

“There is a designated quest for you.”

“What kind of quest is it?”

“It is this kind of quest.”

Quest

It's me who you helped sometime before, it's Lilina Highlord.
I want you to escort a carriage.

Difficulty

There should be no problem with your skills.

Rewards

I'm thinking of 20000 Barse per day.

Details

It is a round trip and would probably take half a month.
We will prepare the food and clothes, so just ready yourself.

"It's not written what is going to be brought and where it is going to be sent huh."
"However, this is a quest that passed through our Guild.
Kehma-sama and the others would not be forced to take responsibility even if it was a case where illegal drugs or illegal slaves were being carried."

"Carrying illegal drugs? Is that, even if we noticed it on the way?"
"You will not be asked for responsibility."
"Do you know the probability of accidents with the similar quests that Lilina-san put out?"
"Please wait for a moment."

Onee-san went back and returned holding records.

"If it is for escort quests, there were 386 quests that were approved, and there is 10% probability to be lightly injured.
3% to be heavily injured, and 0% for death."

"It's low huh."
"There is a person who investigates the data of the monsters or thieves and bandits that would appear, so there is enough safety margin."
"That person's probably quite good."
"Lilina-san is also a heavyweight within the Golden Prairie, so."

“I see.”

“I-I-I-I really don’t get it, is the conclusion Kehma is just that great because he is looked out by such person, enough?!!”

“Don’t join if you don’t get it.”

“It’s very sad you know! Not being able to follow the conversation!!”

“Are you a kid?!!”

I pinched Laura’s cheek.

“Fumii~~~~~”

And when I was pinching Laura, Femil’s appearance entered my sight.

She is holding her staff and seemed to be feeling sad.

However, when our eyes met, she immediately shook her head.

“P-P-P-P-Please do your best!!!”

“Are you fine not meeting me for half a month?”

“Auu.....!!”

Femil gripped her chest and said with tears swelling in her eyes.

“I am fine.....wan.”

She repeated with a voice that it was as if she strained to make, as if to say it to herself.

“I am fine.....waaaaan.”

Not mentioning half a month, Femil looked like she’d die with three days.

It can’t be helped.

“Can I confirm the specific conditions before I accept the quest?”

“Yes.”

I went to Lilina-san’s place after receiving Onee-san’s approval.

“Hey, it’s you huh.”

“Yes, it is me.”

“Since you’re here, can I take it— —you’re going to accept the quest I put out?”

“About that.....”

I pushed forward Femil who was fidgeting behind me.

“Can I bring this girl with us?”

“Femil Crocket huh.”

“You know her?”

“On top of being enrolled at the academy, she’s a Red Magician who is good with flames after all.”

“It is like that huh.”

“Flame Magic users have high demands from blacksmiths. Because on the other hand, there are only few who can use it within Dwalfs.”

“I see.”

“Especially that Femil-jou<sup>1</sup>, she had good behavior in the academy, having no records for being late or absent.

I don’t mind her going with you.

I won’t pay her salary, but I’ll pay for her food.”

“And so, like you heard.....”

“I do not mind!!”

It was an instant answer.

“If I can stay by Kehma-sama’s side, I’m fine even if there’s no food!!!”

” ” That’s not good though..... ” ”

My voice overlapped with Lilina’s.

“Hauuu~~~~n! I’m so happy desuuu~.

Kehma-samaa~. I’m happy to be with him~~~~~”

Where did our mutters go.

Femil stuck to me and rubbed and rubbed her face to me.

“By the way, if you’d decided you’re going, I would be thankful if you move right now.”

“Right now?”

“They say strike when the iron’s hot after all.”

“I don’t mind?” (Laura)

“I’m fine too!!” (Femil)

“Well then, follow me.”

I slowly started to walk and left the town.

There are three carriages there.

One carriage that doesn’t have a hood and two carriages that have white hoods.

On top of that, the horses are equipped with silver armors.

“The person who would be on guard so that they can immediately enter battle in the front most carriage.

Those who are taking a break to the last carriage——separate yourselves like that.”

“Yes.”

I nodded.

A voice was heard from inside the carriage.

“Aneue<sup>2</sup>, you’re such a worrywart.”

It is a girl with elf ears and almond eyes, and silver hair cut short.

She has a cold air around her that feels like it would lower the surrounding temperature by three degrees.

“Let me worry about you as your big sister.”

“.....”

The girl was completely silent.

However, her cheeks were slightly flushed.

It looks like she’s a Onee-chan girl.

“Her name is Rorona Highlord.

Although we do not have the same blood, she is my little sister.”

“I see.”

I nodded and stared at Rorona.

Rorona narrowed her eyebrows to displeasure.

“Hmph.....”, she took out one gold coin and flipped it with her thumb.

She placed a hand on her sword.

She released four slashes as she drew it out and reaches out her sword below the gold coin.

The gold coin that fell on top of the sword was cut off into eight.

“Hmph..... Can you do it?”

“.....that’s impossible.”

“If so, don’t get on the way.”

Rorona turned around and sat on the foremost carriage.

“She’s a little sister like that, but she is not a bad girl. Can you do it moderately and properly.”

“Yes, I understand.”

I nodded and climbed into the carriage at the back.

I chewed the yellow colored apple that was like a lemon inside a basket

It’s sour, but tastes good.

Tererettete ~.

I leveled up too.

“Ne! Ne~, Kehma.”

“What?”

“Can you really not do it? Splitting a gold coin into eight.”

pieces!”

“That kind of reason, huh.....”

“It is that kind of reason.”

I picked up the apple.

I made a stance with the fruit knife that was around.

Two flies entered my sight.

I threw the apple and released sword slashes.

The apple’s skin got peeled off and fell into the bowl after becoming a sliced fruit.

At the same time, its seeds shot down the two flies.

It can be said that it’s a master skill that cannot be compared to that of Rorona’s.

“Amazing.....”

“As expected, desu.....♪”

Laura got surprised, and Femil praised me honestly.

You’re really cute~, the two of you.

1. 嬢 – miss (Femil) / missy / young lady / little girl
  2. 姉上 – big or elder sister in a respectful form

THE JOURNEY WITH THE CARRIAGE WAS EASY

The journey with the carriage was easy.

Rorona rode in the front most carriage and silently sat as she moved her elf ears.
And send orders from time to time.

“Please stop.”

The carriage stopped quickly and Rorona went off.

“I know that you’re there.”

Bandits appeared.

“Hehhe. Well, this is quite some beauty huh.”

“A female elf, a knight on top of that.....”

“I wanna do her so badly.....”

Rorona showed blatant disgust to those guys who have eyes which were like they were high on drugs.

However, there are 30 of them. If you think about it normally, it is fighting against odds.

“Hmph.....you trash.”

“Need help?”

After Rorona scoffed like “Hmph.....”, she charged with her sword still in its sheath.

A crescent moon shaped slash was created.

Three of the bandits had their heads cut off.

A bandit swung his club towards Rorona but she dodged it by jumping back.

A clean slash. The tip of the club was sliced.

Rorona made a light leap.

She easily went over the skin headed bandit and landed to the ground.
In that instant, two bandits were slashed into two.
Five bandits aimed with their crossbows and shot at once.
Rorona dodges four of them with simple shifts of her body and caught the last one with her hand.

“If there were at least 300, it might have been a good fight.”

She continued killing the bandits while saying something like that.
Countless blood spurts danced in the air but she did not get stained even once.

Rorona had declared with an arrogant tone, but she is not overconfident nor has a big mouth.

It was a declaration accompanied by skills which were defined by her amazing talent and relentless training.

“But, Kehma’s about three times stronger right.”

“Well, but, my powers come from cheat though.”

That is why, I feel a certain respect for people who became stronger through hard work.

While hugging Laura to be careful of projectiles, I ate an apple.

Tererettete ~.

I leveled up.

Rorona had not raised her level even once after defeating 30 bandits, but I raised mine thrice with one apple.

Really.....I’m so cheat!

The battle ended.

The bandits were annihilated without any chances of running away.

Not to mention Rorona, her sword didn’t even have blood in it.

It is releasing a silvery white glow similar to that of a jewel.

“Good sword.”

“It’s something that Lalana-oneecha.....onee-sama made for me. Of course it’s excellent.”

While saying that, Rorona took out a small bottle.
She scattered white powder.

“What are you doing?”

“I’m burning them.”

“Don’t you need to take something? Things like their equipment.”

“If they were equipment that truly has some value, it won’t get decay just by being on fire.”

“I see.”

Rorona took out a bright red stone after scattering powder.
She rubbed it to her sword’s sheath and it lit like a matchstick.
She threw it towards the bandits’ corpses.
The corpses burned out grandly.

After waiting for a while, the fire disappeared.
We advanced.

We were attacked by goblins and orcs, but Rorona defeated them easily.

She is really strong as she says.
And with this and that, night came.
We surrounded the flame that Rorona made.
We took meat from the carriage and ate it after cooking.

“Even so, it’s really an easy time!!”

“Well.....that’s true.”

“We’re going to get 20000 Barse for each day although it’s like this, so it’s the best of the best right!!”

“I completely agree.”

“Auu～ .....”

Laura and I enjoyed it obediently.

However, Femil seemed to feel a little bad.

She made her body smaller while holding a cup of grape juice with both hands.

The ears on top of her head were drooping as well.

Rorona blatantly narrowed her eyebrows.

“You.....are you fine with this?”

“Eh?!”

“Indulging in the compensation and meal, without showing any kind of work. Are you not ashamed.....?”

“If you say ‘help’, I’ll help you though.”

“And also, you said that we don’t need to do anything too!!”

Laura and I said together.

Rorona narrowed her eyebrows to disgust more and more.

“Do you not think that since you lack ability, you should make up for it with hard work.....?”

“I don’t really think of it that much.”

“Do you not have, any pride.....?”

“Of course we do!!”

Laura declared sternly.

“I am a Goddess! Laura Gine Amara!

Spending one’s life without working and indulging to sleep, is the Goddess’s status and pride!!!”

What a useless goddess.

Even I who is her ally got disgusted.

Rorona showed disdain and whispered to herself.

“Lilina-oneecha.....onee-sama, what is she thinking letting me be with these guys.....”

And then, she turned around and entered the carriage.

She closed her eyes.

It's a style, making her body rest with only her elf ears moving, and detect it when an enemy comes.

She's clearly angry.

However, Laura is a useless goddess, so she was greatly satisfied from the bottom of her heart.

“To think that she's willing to make me laze around, Rorona-chan's a great and famous good girl right ~ ~ ~”

I'm rather thick-faced too, but I lose to this girl.

“Laura-san..... Amazing.....”

The diligent Femil also respected her instead.

WORKSHOP TOUR

---

Morning came.

I took Laura and Femil and went in the foremost carriage.

“I am fine with myself, though.....?”

“I think so too, but I just thought I hadn’t heard yet.”

“What.....?”

“This carriage, what and where is it going?”

“Hmph..... You don’t even know that?”

“That’s right.”

“You woman there.”

“Y-Y-Y-Y-Yes!”

“Try shooting a Fire Ball to me.”

“Hauu!?”

“Hmph..... Don’t worry. I have Magic Resistance.

I won’t get injured by something like your Fire Ball.”

“Ee～to.....”

Femil stared at me and Rorona alternately.

I said to her.

“She’s saying it. Do it for her.”

“Y-Yes!!”

Femil took distance from Rorona and shot a Fire Ball.

The flames which were quite held back passed through Rorona’s body.

An attack which would either kill instantly or injure heavily a normal person.

But——she was unharmed.

Rorona stood quietly as if she just received a breeze.

“In short.....it’s like this.”

“What does ‘this’ mean?!!”

When Laura shouted that, Rorona answered.

“The clothes that I’m wearing are made with a special thread called Mithril Thread.”

“Mithril Thread?!”

“A thread that increases the magic defense power of the one wearing it.”

“Amazing!!”

“The place where we’re going is where that thread is produced.

“Hohee~~~~”

Laura nodded with a dumb face.

“Hmph.....”

And when we were talking like that, Rorona snapped her finger.

The horse stopped.

A herd of wyverns could be seen from far away.

“You useless guys stay here obediently.”

And then, she started to walk.

“She’s really, a good girl~~~~~”

Laura who became a great person because her pride was almost non-existent.
She’s too weak that she’s too strong.

The carriage journey with Rorona who was frowning continued.
We passed through a stone bridge where a river with clear water flowed, and entered a seemingly unexplored forest after a grassland that had a clear view.
The carriage advanced through the path where it was barely able to pass through.

We arrived.

It can be described as a more modern one as a mountain village, a village with roads made with stone paving.

“Hey.”

Lilina called to us lightly.

“Eh?!!”

“I can use 『Fly』 after all.

I used after finishing the work that is needed, and went ahead of you.”

“I see.....”

“However, Fly would not have an effect if you’re not wearing light equipment.

It is a fact that you guys were needed to carry the baggage.”

“Well, I don’t mind as long as I’m getting paid.”

“Hahaha. I see.”

Lilina lightly laughed.

The carriage advanced deeper into the village.

We arrived at a place that could be described as a tree field with short trees lined up.

However, the thing that must be mentioned was――.

“Their leaves are.....white?”

The leaves of the trees that lined up were white like snow.

“It is being adjusted so that it would be like that after all.”

Lilina who casually said that called out to an elderly man.

“Well well, isn’t it Lilina-sama.”

“Rorona carried the supplies again this time you know.”

“.....”

The elderly man called Bon-jii made a slightly complicated face.

On the other hand, Rorona harrumphed like usual.

“Hmph.....”

Bearded men that really seemed like dwarves came.

They quickly unloaded the supplies from the carriage.

When its lid was open, it was a silver colored metal.

When that thing was put under the sunlight, it released a brightness mixed with rainbow color.

Bon-jii checked what’s inside.

Femil shouted.

“Is it Mithril silver?!!”

“Do you know it?”

“Y-Y-Y-Yes! I saw one being displayed in the academy’s reference room!!!”

“Is it that amazing?”

“One gram of it is equal to one gold coin you know?!!”

“We are monopolizing its vein after all. It’s ‘like that’ with the price sold in the market.”

It’s similar to the diamonds in Earth.

At a certain time, there were lots of diamond mined.

However, because too many of it appeared, the price started to drop.

Workers who become poorer and poorer the more they worked increased.

And there, organizations monopolized it and controlled its distribution.

Although, I don’t know whether it’s true.

Femil shouted.

“Even so, it’s very rare right?!!”

“I’ll admit that. But, having one gold coin for one gram is too much.”

The men who checked what’s inside the boxes carried them to the workshop-like place at the back of the field.

“Since you’re here. You want to take a look?”

“Is it alright?!”

“I won’t say it if it is.”

“Haha”, Lilina laughed.

Femil’s face shone brightly.

“What about you? Rorona.”

“I will.....take some rest.”

“Is that so.”

“.....yes.”

Rorona nodded very sleepily.

Well, she was on guard both day and night after all.

We left Rorona and went to the workshop to take a look.

GAIN! GAIN! GAIN!

Giiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiin

GAGAGAGAGA

That was a men’s workplace.

If there are ones who crushes the mithril silver using a huge nata-like sword, there are ones who activated drills using magic powers, there are also ones who were hitting it using their fists.

Lastly, they would crush it using a mortar.

“How can I say this.....what an amazing scene.”

“That’s why I wanted you to take a look.”

“Fufu”, Lilina laughed.

Elf girls sifted the powder that the men crushed using a mortar.

They returned the remaining pieces to the men, and placed a new batch of powder.

We went outside.

The powder was being scattered to the fields where the white low trees aligned.

“T-T-T-T-The mithril silver, it’s, it’s, it’s.....hauuu~~~~~”

Femil started to tremble.

Well, from Femil’s perspective, it’s probably raising beans using gold.

Well, she can’t be blamed for getting startled.

“When the mithril silver is mixed into the soil, the Green Wood’s leaves will become white.”

“Their leaves are white but Green Wood? That’s a little funny.”

“Hahaha.”

A different elf girl from the one who was scattering the powder stared intently at the field’s leaves.

She carefully looked at every each one of it, and crushed the insects with her hand.

Although she’s wearing thin gloves, it’s a little disgusting.

While she was crushing insects, she would take some leaves and place it in a basket.

Rather, is there a standard for the leaves? She won’t take them randomly.

She would take every each one of them caringly after checking each and every one of them closely.

She lifted the basket full of leaves and went to the large and long house.

“Kehma boy.”

“Yes.”

“Are you someone who’s not good with insects?”

“It depends on what insect.”

“If it is that, I’m quite fine with it.”

“I’m fine with it too! If it’s just looking!”

“I am, I am.....”

Femil made her body small while she embraced her staff.

PuruPuruPuruPuru

Her body trembled as her face became pale, and her bunny ears drooped as well.

Her lovely tail on her butt entered between her legs.

“Don’t push yourself if you’re not good with insects?”

“I-I-I-I-I, I hate getting away from Kehma-san even moree!!”

Femil who is a half of bunny beast-kin and dog beast-kin hugged me as she trembled.

Kawaii.

And so, with that, the three of us went to the long house together.

I opened the door that was a little thick.

An unpleasant heat came welcoming us.

“We found out through testing and experiments that the silkworms would eat a lot of leaves during an 85% humidity and at 36 degree Celsius, so.”

“I see.....”

I endured the unpleasantness that was coming and looked at the middle of the room.

There were five thin and long trenches like a pool that did not have water.

Each of them probably has a width of 50 cm.

An elf girl looked at the trench. She placed the white leaves there while she checks the remaining amount.

Insects with silver luster were eating the leaves.

“Just as you saw, we are giving the insects here the leaves that had grown in a soil that was mixed with mithril silver.”

“I see.”

“How extravagant.....”

Femil muttered with a slightly envious gaze.

“This voice.....Lilina-sama?!”

“Lilina-sama!”

“Lilina-sama?!!”

The elf girls who were working stopped their hands and looked towards us.

“I am happy that you admire me, but can you stop resting your hands?”

” ” ” Yesss ♪♪ ” ” ”

Lilina casually walked and checked the insides of the trench.

There are white partitions in the trench and each girl is in charge of different ones.

“You’re working quite well today too huh, Saria.”

“Yes!!”

“This is.....did you change the mixture? Riel.”

“Yes!!”

“From how its color seems.....aside from the usual mithril silver’s leaves, Flame Stone’s powder and Salamander’s scale. You also mixed in Magma Slime’s core huh?”

“I think that it is somewhat.....about the profits, but.....”

“That’s true, it’s a little over the default budget.”

“Yes.....”

The Elf-san became crestfallen.

But――.

“However, the ones who need to think about that is our, the merchant’s, side.

You girls only need to think about making good ones.”

“Yes!!!”

Lilina advanced as she praised them like that.

There are also red, blue, green, and gold other than the white silkworms.

I feel like I was looking at an aquarium, so it’s quite fun.

“Hauu.....♪”

Femil who said that she hates insects was smiling as well.

Lilina started explaining.

“The silkworms that were raised with the diet of eating leaves that have the property of mithril silver would make cocoons of mithril thread.

And by adding materials that have different attributes, threads that have strong attribute of that would be made, but.....”

“Its defense against other attributes would probably be weaker.”

“You, your head really works fast.”

Lilina slightly widened her eyes.

She continued to explain.

“Aiming for a plus while the maintaining the high defensive capability of mithril silver. I really respect these girls who are daily experimenting.”

She would respect and appropriately praise the people in the workplace.

It could be said that Lilina is a good proprietor.

We advanced up to the wall side.

White flat boxes were aligned, and there's a big shelf.

Jewel-like things were lined up inside the box.

It's as big as quail eggs.

If one would look at them without having prior knowledge, they might see them as Ruby, Sapphire, or Emerald lined up.

However, unlike normal gems, there are spider-like threads stuck to it.

“How beautiful.....♥”

Hauu.....♥”

Both Laura and Femil had their eyes sparkling bright.

It's a little unexpected that Laura would also make a face like this.

I completely thought that she likes food more than flowers?

“Lilina-sama, please move move on the side side.”

“Ahh, umu.”

When Lilina moved to the side, the elf girl who spoke in a strange way pulled a box from the shelves.

She carried it to a backyard-like place.

She put them on top of an anvil――.

“Fire!!!”

And burned it.

” ” EHHHHHHHHHHHHH?!?!?!?!? ” ”

Laura and Femil’s voice overlapped.

“People who see this scene for the first time would show similar reactions.”

“That’s completely true true, it’s very fun fun～.”

The girl and Lilina grinned.

The fire disappeared after about five minutes.

The spider-like thread around the cocoon had disappeared.

What remained was the pure, gem-like part.

“Just like that, the ones with low resistance will be removed using flame magic.”

Lilina picked up the gem-like cocoon and observed it closely.

“This time looks very good as well.”

“Thank you very much much.”

The girl bowed her head.

“After this, the cocoons will be boiled, and it’s complete after making them threads――

—am I right?”

“Exactly.”

When we were talking like that, Lilina said.

“By the way, Kehma boy, are you interested in cake and tea?”

“Pretty much.”

“Well then, I’ll treat you then.”

“Is it alright?”

“I have something to talk about while we’re at it too.”

Lilina casually said and added a simple explanation.

“Two things as a merchant, and one thing as a person.”

“I understand.”

1. 爺 – gramps or grandpa
  2. 花より団子 – hana yori dango

WEIRD LAURA AND SERIOUS TALK

The place where Lilina guided us to was a fantasy-like coffee shop.
It is a special tree that is made that people can live in it.
We entered inside and climbed using a magic board.

We sat at the window side at the place that is probably the third floor of an ordinary building.
We can see the forest clearly.
It is an excellent view.

“Here is your White Berry Cake.”

The Maid-san puts down cake on a small dish.
It’s white like a cheesecake and looks delicious.

I used the spoon on the side to take a bite.
The spoon entered the white cake so easily and softly separated.
A pink colored cream came out.
It makes me hungry just by looking.

I placed it on the spoon.
The white cake mixed with the cream softly trembled.

I took a bite.
It has a smooth texture.
It melted just by rolling it on top of my tongue.
Delicious.

“Fueeee~~~~~n, so deliciouuuuusss~~~~~!!!”

Laura placed a hand on her cheek and showed a blissful face.

“The texture of the cake’s cream melting on the top of my tongue!
The soft and melting taste spread throughout my mouth, it melted my cheeks and even my body, I’m going to be a slimeee~~~~~♥♥♥!!!”

It’s the hard to react evaluation that had already become a cliché.
I’m already used to it, but Lilina was petrified.

“Yo.....Your partner, Laura-jou, she has a quite unique, daring brain it seems.....”

Lilina’s face was full of suffering like Goth when he cut off his own ear for the sake of art.
I said then.

“What are we talking about?”

“The first one, about our return.”

“?”

“There are accidents where adventurer parties had been missing in the path that you used.

An investigation team was dispatched, but the details are unknown.

If you were to meet an unconfirmed monster, it would be great if you run away even if you throw away the baggage.

It would seem that from the remaining equipment, it will be dangerous around the seventh day of the return.”

“It’s okay to leave them behind?”

“My personal history will be damaged if you die.”

“There’s still no one who died from the ones who accepted your quest after all.”

“Actual results, they’re more eloquent than any word after all.”

Lilina quietly drinks her tea.

“And so, about the second one.....it’s this.”

Lilina showed a flat box.

There is silver thread inside it.
Lilina put oil and ignited it.
The oil burns but the thread was not burned at all.

“As you can see, it’s mithril thread. If you wish so, I’m thinking of making clothes with this.”

“How much is it.....?”

“However, I can guarantee it’s quality.”

Furthermore, Lilina took out a knife.
She hangs it on top of the bundle of thread and let her hand go.

Suton

The knife fell on top of the bundle.
However, it was easily repelled as if it was a toy.
Not to mention being severed, the bundle of thread did not have any damage.

I took the knife. I tried its sharpness using the spoon in my hand.

Zuppa

The silver spoon was smoothly cut like a cucumber.
It is a very sharp item within the knives.

“You’re really, doubtful huh.”

“Doubts are needed a process for trust after all.

I’m judging that people who complain about that do not plan to exchange trust with me.”

“Fufufu, I see.”

Lilina interestingly laughed and ate some cake after drinking tea.

“What do you think? I don’t think that you can’t not pay it right now?”

“After all, we’re currently on a job that pays 20000 a day that would last about 30 days.”

“And with the armor as a trigger, it would be the best if you’d also be a customer that would buy weapons.”

Lilina said without feeling bad at all.

It is actually something that each of us have merits.

“Well, for the meantime, please think of it that I’ll consider it very much.”

“Fufu, I see.”

Lilina drank her tea again.

“With that, the discussion as a merchant is over.”

“Well then, the next is the one about being a person right?”

“.....it will be so.”

Lilina-san’s expression was suddenly showing a heavy, dark shadow.

“You guys.....what do you think of Rorona?”

“Eh.....?!”

“I want you to say it honestly.”

“She’s a really good girl!!”

Laura at my side instantly answered.

She continued to talk with cream at the side of her mouth.

“You know, when the quest started, she said that we don’t need to do anything!

She’s spoiling me at her best!!

I don’t know a better girl than that!!!”

Then, after Laura took a bite from the cake, she shouted from the bottom of her heart.

“She’s a Country-destroying Archangel you know!!!”

“I don’t think that, destroying a country is good though.....”

Lilina muttered quietly.

I can tell from Laura's voice and expression that she's seriously praising her.

However, her example is seriously not good.

It's the worst.

I reconfirmed the fact how bad of a goddess Laura is.

"W-Well, if she likes her, I'm happy too."

Lilina closed it like that.

She's very grown-up.

I pinched Laura's cheek in Lilina's stead.

"Ouuuchhh~~~~~!!!"

Lilina started to explain.

"A lot of things, happened to Rorona in the past.

She's a good girl, but she became someone who can't show that."

"Although she's such a good girl who would be written in history right now.....?!!"

"Being told something like that really makes me happy, fufu."

Lilina drank her tea quietly.

"It's not like I want you to do something because of that, but it would be great if you get along together."

"I understand."

I nodded lightly.

CHAPTER 31

LEARNING WATER AND WIND MAGIC JUST BY EATING!

---

We received reception from Lilina.

We were shown wind and water tricks at the side of expensive fruits and mountain vegetable dishes.

They are tricks where colored water are scattered like fireworks using Wind Magic.

The meal good and the entertainment is fun, it was an excellent experience.

It seems like there were quite rare ingredients used, so I leveled up too.

Level: 1391→1481

HP: 12473/12473(↑640)

MP: 11574/11574(↑620)

Strength: 11281(↑631)

Vitality: 11242(↑600)

Agility: 11199(↑622)

Magic Powers: 10732(↑630)

Learned Skills

Wind Magic LV1 1/50

Water Magic LV1 1/50

I got excited to the unexpected learn.

I thought of making Femil learn it too, but there might be an overuse so I thought ga.

I slept alone in a single room.

The leaves bed had a sense of floating like that of a hammock.

I slept very well.

Morning came.

I stretched with a very refreshed feeling.

I joined up with Laura and Femil and went to the cafeteria that was introduced beforehand.

“I brought your order.”

The elf girls at Lilina’s sides took out clothes each.

One normal clothes and one one-piece dress.

“Kehma boy’s is a normal shirt, and Femil-jou’s should be better worn under her robe.”

“Eh.....?!”

“n?”

Lilina narrowed her eyebrows when she saw me confused.

“I made it through the night receiving an order from Laura-jou though.....”

“Protecting one’s body is important, so I thought we shouldn’t be cheap.....”

“Even so, why did you decide it yourself.”

“.....I-It’s wife’s help-like, management of my believer’s safety?”

“Wife’s help, it doesn’t mean like that!”

“Eh?!.....I-Is that so?”

“That’s right. I don’t care if you’ll search the correct meaning, let me pinch your cheeks.”

“Myaaa!!”

Laura shouted and pulled back before she was pinched.

She says while she holds her cheeks.

“D-D-D-D-Didn’t Kehma say! That you’d consider it!!”

“Considering it means 『It’s difficult to decide, on hold for a while』 !”

“What’s that! I don’t get it! What world’s country did those words come from~~~~
~~~~!!”

“Either way, don’t decide it without my permission!!!”

“Sorry, sorry, sorr.....fueeeeeeee~~~~~n!!!”

Laura who guarded her cheeks had her twin tails pulled.

I glanced at the prepared clothes.

The clothes that we can only buy two garments with our current budget, there was only mine and Femil's.

I let go of Laura while sighing.

“Well, I’ll forgive you this once.”

“Is that what you say even though you pulled my hair?!”

"If I didn't forgive you, I'd flip your skirt and spank you though?"

“Kehma you sadist!!

I was really worried that's why I asked to make the clothes!!!"

“Thanks for that.”

I patted Laura's head and said thanks.

“Idiot.....”

Laura muttered silently, but she behaved with flushed cheeks.

Femil and I wore the mithril thread clothes.

The materials are light and cool, it's like wearing a feather robe made out of water.

We went to the entrance of the village.

The dwarf-like men carried the baggage to the carriage.

And Rorona is standing there.

“Hmph..... We’re returning together too huh.”

“Please take care of us!!!”

The idiot goddess Laura held Rorona's hand although she blatantly narrowed her eyebrows and swings it energetically.

“Let go!!!”

Rorona pulls her hand from Laura and blows her away with a front kick.

“Kya!!”

“I, I hate the people you the most!! People who are loved although you are not doing anything!!!”

Strong hate, sadness, and guilt were hidden in her eyes.

It looks like at the same time of being unable to forgive the existence called Laura, she feels bad about kicking her away as well.

But even so, it is too cruel to kick a person away.

I thought like that, but――.

“Howaaaaan.....♥!!”

Laura seemed happy.

She hugged my feet and did not even try to stand up.

“Ne～, Kehma. You heard～? It looks like Rorona-chan thinks that I’m a great and famous Goddess that is overflowing with charm that I’ll be loved by so many people without doing anything～～♥”

(You took it like that?!!)

“Haaa～ ..... I get it. Rorona-chan, I totally get it～～ .....♥”

The useless goddess that did not understand anything is in ecstasy by herself.

“That girl, I’m very sure that she really likes mee～ .....”

I could not help but feel awe.

Such a different dimensional communication, did it ever exist?

“I’ll do my best to laze around to not let Rorona-chan’s feelings in vain!

Kehma!!”

This Goddess, she's really amazing.
I felt a kind of respect and rode the carriage on the bag.

The journey with the carriage advanced smoothly.
Rorona was really strong that we did not need to do anything.
I spent time eating sushi-shaped strawberries, star-shaped melons, and maintaining my sword.

"This is the best.....♪"
"T-T-T-That's true....."

Laura was lazing around from the bottom of her heart, but Femil was nervous and hugs her staff.

"Why are you that nervous?"
"Didn't Lilina-san say..... That a mysterious monster appears....."
"But, nothing was found when the investigation party investigated after the accident right?"
"She also said that, but....."

I told Femil who was being smaller to Laura.

"It would be troubling if you were too carefree, but being too nervous isn't good too you know?"
"Y.....Yes!....."

Femil silently nodded, but she is still very stiff.
I used a branch to test the sharpness of my sword.
I checked that it cuts like butter, and sheathed it.
My sword seems good, so I should check magic next.

"Can you stand side by side with Laura?"

“Yes.....”

Femil stood at Laura’s side.

I concentrated my magic powers.

I completed the image and chanted the spell.

“Wind!!”

The wind blows.

Laura who was not wearing panties and Femil who is wearing panties had their skirt flipped up.

For a while, the two of them seemed to be unable to understand what just happened, but――.

” ” KYAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!! ” ”

They pushed down their skirts at the same time they noticed.

The appearance of beautiful girls pushing their skirts, it is really great.

“What are you thinking! Idiot! Ecchi! Pervert!”

“P-P-P-P-Please tell me if you want to see it!!”

Laura got angry properly, but Femil said something with obedience although she was flushed red.

But even so, both of them were tightly pushing down so that their skirt would not be flipped up.

It’s cute.

“I-I-I-If, K-K-K-Kehma really insist, I can.....”

“Nah, don’t want some.”

“Why?!!”

“When it comes to your skirt, it isn’t fun if it’s not a situation where I’m not forcefully taking it off although you don’t want to.”

“How much of a pervert are you?!!”

“If you don’t want to be forced, just let me touch your breasts. Breasts are fun too even if it is not forcefully.”

“Oh really.....you pervert

Laura made a wry face, but even so, she still sits on my side.

“D-D-D-Don’t misunderstood okay?

The reason I’m letting you touch, it’s because you are still my Believer.....okay?”

“I know that.”

I put Laura on my lap and kneaded her breasts while hugging her.

ENCOUNTER WITH THE VARIANT SPECIES.

---

It is a journey full of earthly desires, and I do things properly as well.
I placed an apple on top of a box and raised my right hand.

“.....”

I concentrated deep within――.

“Wind Needle!”

The intangible needles made out of wind pierced the seeds of the apple.

“If it can be used at high efficiency in no time, it can be a sub weapon.....or something like that.”

“Well, it’s level 1 after all～”

“For me, it is more of a surprise that on top of being able to use an amazing swordsmanship and flame emission, you can use wind and water magic as well.....”

“Well, he’s my Kehma after all”

Ehhen, Laura puffed out her chest.

I also tried water magic, but I can only use two, Water Ball and Water Gun.

On top of that, there is only a full cup when it comes to Water Ball.

Water Gun was literally a water gun.

Dopyu! Dopyu!, the water that dumbly splashed like that could only be used to bully Laura.

And so, I used it.

“Hey! Kya! Kehma you idiot!! Idioot!!”

And when we were doing that, Rorona who is in the front carriage shouted.

“Stop the carriage!!”

The coach pulled the reins and stopped the horses.

Rorona and I prepared our weapons.

After one or two seconds, adventurers appeared from the brush.

There are two of them.

Each of them has injuries in their shoulder and feet.

“H-H-H-H-Heeeeeelp!!!!”

“What happened.....?”

“I don’t know! A monster I’d never seen, suddenly.....!!”

“The variant species in the rumors huh.....”

Rorona crouched in front of the man and rolled bandage on his arms and legs.

“We are about to go to Reyguard.

If you are fine with that, we’ll let you go with us.”

“Please wait.....”

“W-We have.....we have comrades.....!”

Rorona’s face turned to a grim one from an indifferent one.

She draws her sword.

“You bastards, are you saying you left your comrades and ran away.....?”

“That is right.....”

“But, he told us! He told us to leave that place to him and run away.....”

“If we were to sit around, we thought that his feelings would be in vain.....!”

“What a convenient logic.”

Rorona spat out with her words, but she sheathed her drawn sword.

“Is it that direction where the monster appeared?”

“Are you going to save him.....?”

“That person who stayed for his comrade should be an individual who is worth saving. It is regrettable to lose him because of you trash.”

“Sorry.....”

The two men shed tears and kneeled on the ground.

“As you heard, I’ll go, but you guys stay here.”

“You’re going alone?”

“Did I not say so?”

Rorona quickly dashed.

“Eh?! Hey, what will you do? Kehma.”

“Let me think.....”

I healed the two wounded adventurers.”

“O-Ohh.....!!”

“To think that there’s a Healing Magic user here.....!”

“It seems like it won’t let you recover your lost blood and stamina though.

“It is enough even with just that.....!”

“If you think so, can you tell me a lot of things?”

“.....?”

“Your ranks and the weapons or magic that you’re good at.

The kinds, numbers of enemies, and the attacks they used.”

“O-Our rank, this guy and me are D-Rank, but Rail who remained is C-Rank.”

“Our weapons, I use an axe, and this guy uses a bow.”

“What about that guy called Rail?”

“He uses a one-handed sword and a decent Flame Magic.”

“What about the number of enemies and their kinds?”

“I don’t know.....”

“Ha.....?”

“I really, I really don’t know!”

“Tell me a little more in detail.”

“Y-Yeah.....”

I asked about it in detail.

At the time when Kehma is calmly gathering information.

Rorona is running by herself.

She rushed with the reliance of the smell and footsteps that the two adventurers left behind.

Her speed was equal to that of a kind of a horse.

A feeling of rage raised within herself when she ran wholeheartedly like that.

It was not for someone else.

But if it suffices to say, it was towards her own destiny.

THE SWORDSMAN OF SADNESS

~ RORONA HIGHLORD ~

---

There a war.

When did it happen? Who was the opponent?

She has not heard about that.

She was only told what happened just how it was.

Rorona's grandfather was a carrier soldier of equipment and army provisions.

They brought with them a magic bag full of weapons and rations and ran through the forest with just six elites.

The frontlines were doubtful, and it is a situation that would change in 180 degrees whether or not the supplies reaches or not.

But, however, it must be because of that.

They were in a distress situation where their transport was surrounded by the cautious enemy.

There are 60 of them.

Thinking about it normally, it was nothing that can be done.

Rorona's grandfather――.

He ran away.

He threw away the magic bag that is full of rations and ran away.

Magic bags are extremely valuable.

On top of its materials being very rare, a delicate craftsmanship is necessary as well.

It would take a month to make one bag even skilled craftsmen and adventurers were gathered.

When it comes to a coward running away and a magic bag, anyone will pick up the magic bag.

He throws it away then ran away because of that.

The remaining five did not run away.

All of them drew their swords and charged head-on.

They opened a bloody path through their enemies and broke through their encircling net.

They entrusted the bag to their comrade and collapsed, and entrusted the bag to their comrade and collapsed.

And, there was only one who reached the front lines.

And even that remaining one, he entrusted the bags to his comrade and died.

Thanks to their sacrifice, the war was won.

The five elves were treated as heroes.

And following those heroes being praised as heroes, Rorona's grandfather was slandered.

Why did her grandfather run away? The reason for that, it was simple.

He had a wife.

He had a child as well.

And it was a child who was just born as well.

He thought that he did not want to die before he sees his child's face.

If it was before he knew that he had a child, there was no doubt that he held his sword and slashed through the encirclement with them.

He was a courageous warrior until the day of that fight.

However, Rorona's grandfather's such circumstances were not taken into consideration.

It was because the other heroes who cut through a bloody path had the same circumstances with Rorona's grandfather.

The existence of the brave heroes did not leave Rorona's grandfather who is just a human.

The disdain and persecution also extended to her grandfather's son.

It was forbidden under the rule.

Even when talking about the story of the heroes, it was directed so that the "sixth one that ran away" did not exist in the first place.

However, malice permeates.

They received casual harassments where the culprit cannot be specified.

Furthermore, Rorona's grandfather collapsed just when she was born.

Rorona's father died early, and her mother threw her and ran away.

The daughter that was born who was not even named, but sold to a certain rich noble.

Her mother's appearance is completely that of an elf.

If she lies and says that she is still a virgin, there are countless nobles would take her as a wife.

However, that was also throwing away one's pride.

A grandfather that left his comrades and ran away, and a mother that threw away her daughter.

A girl who has the blood of them, who in the world will she abandon?

The girl who had circumstances that must be pitied became the target of contempt.

She was given the name "Nagu" that means "No Name" for convenience.

But although it was like that, adults are adults.

There were only a few of them that discriminates.

However, it is different for children.

Who knows when, but her circumstances were found out by the children, and those children blatantly discriminated "Nagu" with their cruel innocence.

They threw her mud as a "game as children" and let her eat fresh grass.

There was also a time when her face was suddenly covered by a bag and was thrown deep within the forest.

It is a "pretend play" of leaving one's comrade behind.

But going this far, the bullies were scolded.

However, Nagu was not completely treated as a victim as well.

They treated it like it brought all of it on herself.

It does not matter whether they did a bad thing or not; she was slandered without a clear cause.

“Nagu”’s heart was being killed with each day that passed.

But regardless of that, she was hungry.

She received support from the village as a rule until she was 6 years old.

When she reached 7 years old, she entered the forest and swung her sword.

“Nagu” was a genius swordsman.

She was able to hunt for beasts and fruits just enough for her to eat.

But even so, her loneliness did not disappear.

She spent her days alone in a small hut at the corner of the village.

There was deep loneliness there.

It was the two, Lalana and Lilina, who picked her up.

The two of them who came to the village from the town because it was their 17th birthday looked at the village’s children.

“FU0000000000000000!!

It super smells that a great weapon will be made here. U00000!!”

Lalana who got excited then said to Lilina.

“I’ll go and look at the workshop! I’ll leave the details to you!”

“I only need to, let many kids swing the weapons you made right?”

“That’s right!!”

Immediately after saying that, Lalana rushed to the workshop.

The two are the so-called “higher-ups”.

It was equivalent to have their futures promised if they were to be fancied.

All kinds of materials were gathered to Lalana.

All kinds of people gathered to Lilina.

Especially the parents of the children, they fervently introduced their children to Lilina.

And there, Lilina met “Nagu”.

Lilina who has an appraiser’s talent felt “Nagu”’s genius in an instant.

On top of that, after hearing “Nagu”’s circumstances, she felt closer to her.

Lilina is the granddaughter of the hero who opened a path and delivered the supplies to their allies.

That is why, she was adored and praised by people. However, she was “empty” just like “Nagu”.

She was called amazing for being the hero’s grandchild, and told as expected for being the hero’s grandchild.

Praise and persecution.

Although the vector is different, it was the same for being empty.

Lilina made “Nagu” her little sister, and gave her the name Rorona.

And from then on, loneliness disappeared from Rorona’s world.

Lilina who is the grandchild of the hero and has a great merchant’s talent, and Lalana who was not concerned who it is as long as the potential of the weapons she made would be brought out.

Rorona was able to gain her place within the Dwelves because the two treated her well.

However, that made a different wound towards Rorona.

The reason why she was being loved was because of her talent.

It is because she saved other people even if it meant to injure herself.

If that did not exist?

If that ceases to exist?

What appeared in Rorona’s mind was herself being alone inside a house.

Nights of trembling alone in a house full of holes.

Fear was born because her sadness disappeared.

She was thankful.

She also thinks that Lilina's plan was for the best.

Thanks to Lilina, she was able to get more than a hundred companions recognizing her.

However, what Rorona needed was not the best way.

It was alright even it is wrong. It is alright even if it depends on others.

A person who would embrace her even a hundred companions throws her stones.

A person who would give me unconditional love, even throwing away reason, logic, rationality or whatever there is.

I want such a person.

I am asking for, such love.

However, that is just a selfish thing.

I know that it is crazy.

That is why, she was not able to show it, and only the sadness piled up.

Nights, where she would cry for no reason, comes once a week.

I need to be of someone's use.

I need to be of someone's use.

If not, then no one will love me.

If not, I will be unable to live.

The disciplined rightness continued to make Rorona suffer.

She wished to be loved the most, but she was afraid to ask for love.

She was only able to prove her worth, by being of someone's help.

CHAPTER 34

RORONA OF DEFEAT

---

Rorona who sprinted reached an open area.

Her heightened concentration captured that one spot.

A woman being strangled and a white minotaur strangling her with its right hand.

(The height of a minotaur is roughly 1.8x of me. Although the hardness of its arm is unknown一一)

Rorona drew out her sword.

The minotaur's arm was blown away.

(It does not look like my sword cannot cut it!!!)

Furthermore, Rorona released her killing Twin Cross while turning around.

The minotaur that was split into four by the X cross was split into eight by the + cross.

The time that passed, only 0.2 seconds.

Additionally, Rorona reaches out her hand.

“Wind!”

The dismembered minotaur was blown away.

“Hmph.....”

Rorona sheathed her sword.

She asked towards the collapsed woman.

“Is your body alright?”

The woman said.

“Run, away.....”

“Do not worry. I already split the enemy into eight.”

Geho!, the woman spat out blood.

She has deep wounds.

Her shoulder was gouged, and there is a hole in her stomach.

Even if a hundred doctors take a look at her, a hundred of them would say it is a fatal wound.

“Don’t speak.”

Rorona put her hand in her pocket.

She took out a thumb-sized vial that has green colored liquid inside.

“This is an elixir that even an executive of the Golden Prairie can only carry one.

You will absolutely be saved as long as you’re not a corpse.”

“That.....no.....”

“Don’t worry about it.”

Rorona lets the woman drink the liquid.

Gokun, the woman’s throat sounded.

Her wounds closed like a rewinding video.

“It would take a lot of time to recover your blood and stamina, but it looks like your life is saved.”

“Damn it.....!”

The woman gritted her teeth in frustration.

“I do not want you to ask to speak gratitude, but I’m unwilling to make you feel frustrated though.....”

“That thing.....at the beginning, it was a Troll.....”

“?”

“And when I cut him off, he fucking.....became an Ogre.....”

“What, are you.....?”

“In the end....., when I beheaded it.....it became a Minotaur.....”

Rorona understood after hearing up until there.

“In short, that monster, it evolves every time it gets defeated.....?”

“That’s why, I wanted you to reserve it for yourself, if you had.....a medicine.....”

“If so, then do not worry.”

Rorona gently lets the woman fall asleep.

“That elixir, it would heal anyone as long as they are not dead. However, it would make that person sleep for a whole week if it was used on deep wounds. It is a medicine that is completely useless during battle.”

“I.....see.....”

The medicine circulated throughout her body, and the woman lost consciousness.

“Well then.....”

Rorona looked towards the direction the Minotaur was blown away.

〈 S h i k s h a.....a n t 〉

The enemy said 『Learning.....finished』 with a tone that Rorona did not understand.

Its torso that was split into eight regenerated and its split head returns to normal.

It grew arms and finally having a total of 6.

What was shaped out, was a pure white Cyclops.

Its size is roughly 2.2 meters.

“Hmph.....”

Rorona glanced to her back.

She kicked the ground and charged so that the woman would not get caught in the battle.

She did the drawing slash just like earlier.

Her blade sinks into the bulky white body.
However, she did not feel resistance.

“Afterimage?!!”

Rorona was surprised.
And a white fist was thrown to her stomach.

“Guha!!”

Rorona was blown away grandly.
The trees on her path were mowed until she hits a big cliff.
A 3-meter radius crater was created.

Pursuing attack came.
Four fists sank to Rorona.
Three of her ribs were broken.

“Don’t.....look down on me.....!!”

Rorona released her killing Twin Cross.
The X cross and + cross traced the Cyclops’ body.

Gyarin! Gyarin!
A sound like a metal was traced was created and made some sparks.
However――.

It was unwounded.

It was completely unwounded even after receiving Rorona’s slash that can easily tear through steel.

It was because it remembered it.
It was because it remembered the strength of the sword Rorona released.

Not letting her guard down and attacking the enemy with her full strength cornered

Rorona instead.
Counterattack came.
For the Cyclops, it was a light jab-like attack.

However, Rorona has low Vitality.
On top of that, there are six arms.
Rorona greatly bent backward.
Her nose bone and the front of her teeth were broken, red blood danced in the air.

“Kaha! Haa.....!”

Her past memories revive like a revolving lamp<sup>1</sup>.
Her childhood when she was bullied.
Mud balls were thrown at her, and she was forced to drink mud water with grasshopper inside.

In the house where the windows were broken without reason, she slept trembling because of the night wind.
Without knowing the reason she was born.
Without knowing why she is living.
Without knowing that, death approaches.
Fear that surpassed everything enveloped her whole body.

Rorona turned her back to the enemy.
The enemy's fist landed on her back.

“KHUAA.....!”

Rorona's body collapsed face down.
The Cyclops lied over her.

Her shoulder was bitten.
Her flesh was violently gouged out.

I am being eaten.
I'll become food.

Rorona who realized that intensely reached out to the empty space where no one was in and said.

“Save, me.....”

She cried after whimpering.

“Someone.....someonee.....”

What was there was not a swordsman with a genius talent.

It is the weak girl Rorona who was bullied and forced to drink mud water by children.

The Cyclops that had tasted a part of Rorona raised its hand to put an end to her.

It was at that time.

“Wind Needle!”

A voice that released magic was made and the Cyclops’ eyes were destroyed.

And in the next instant, the Cyclops was chopped into pieces.

It was a god-like instantaneous technique that being proud of the killing technique of releasing four slashes in an instant would be embarrassing.

Both those slashes and being saved, was a miraculous event for Rorona.

And the person who made that miracle――.

Kosakai Kehma.

The man that Rorona hated very much during this journey.

“Heal.”

After casting Healing Magic on her, Kehma raised her body through an embrace.

“Are you okay?”

“Ghu.....”

Rorona who was healed got stuck on her voice.

Various kinds of emotions came.
Happiness that came with the healing.
Relief from not dying.
Gratitude to Kehma who saved her although she cursed at him that much.

Embarrassment for saying big words to someone she has this much difference when it comes to skill.

However, what came out of her mouth were dishonest words.

“Why....., did you save me.....!!”

After saying that, Rorona felt pathetic.

She thought that it was she was too rude towards the person who saved her.

But, however, Rorona was afraid.

It is because she knew about the fear of loneliness that she was afraid of kind people.

The me right now will, be easily be destroyed, if I was betrayed by a kind person.

That reality was branded on her unconsciousness.

If so, it's better to be hated as a rude person.

The man in front of her said as if it was nothing.

“Didn’t I tell you? I’ll save you if you call for help.”

Rorona vaguely remembered.

It's true.

You said it.

It is true that the man in front of me said that.

However, they were said lightly during a meal time chat.

I did not think that it would be applied even in such situation, like at the border of life and death, or while challenging a strong enemy.

Or rather, I could not think of it.

I could not imagine that somebody who lost all worth after being defeated by an enemy would reach out a helping hand.

Honest feelings of gratitude were born inside her.

However, the days of being not loved, had fixated the idea of fear from being betrayed on the word “believe”.

She got off Kehma’s arms and drew out her spare sword.

“Run.....”

“Eh?!”

“I split that monster into eight earlier.

At the beginning, that enemy had a similar difference between me and you when it comes to strength.

However, it revived, and began to surpass me.”

“I heard about it was an orc first, but transformed after getting defeated.”

“If you understand, then treat it as such enemy!!!”

Rorona readied with her sword.

If I fight after Kehma had run away, I would probably die.

However, strangely, I’m not scared.

The fact of being saved unconditionally made me create a meaning and worth for my own life.

The fact of being saved, created the feeling of throwing away my life if it was for Kehma.

AN ENEMY THAT HAS A CHEAT

NO WAY TO BE INFERIOR WITH KEHMA

~ THE STRONGEST IN THE NOVEL UP TO DATE ~

Rorona who seemed to have prepared to risk her life held her sword pointing to the enemy.

“I shall return the gratitude for saving me! That’s why, hurry up and run away! Kosakai Kehma!”

Even while Rorona was desperately shouting, the Cyclops had started to regenerate. A dark armor was newly created and started to envelop its body.

It feels like looking at a 『clam』 that has a natural armor make its shell at fast forward.

There is no doubt that that armor would be able to endure the slash earlier.

“I shall stop it here, even if it costs my life!!!”

Rorona was saying something, but I glanced at the thing in my hand.

That white object was moving.

It’s a part of that monster that I cut off earlier.

I used the Identify skill that I borrowed from Laura using points.

◆ White Cloud

A monster that has the characteristics of mimicking the monsters it has met.

However, it is only mimicking, so it is weaker than the real thing.

It normally runs away after its opponent was stunned by its mimicking.

And from its characteristics, it is a monster that is full of mysteries.

Just looking at that explanation, it is nothing but a weak mob.

However, its main body’s status was like this.

Name: : #128

Race: White Cloud

Level: 3

HP: 15280/15280

MP: 0/0

Strength: 13500

Vitality: 15280

Agility: 13800

Magic Powers: 10900

Learned Skills

High Speed Regeneration LV2 78/150

Striking Attack Resistance LV2 0/150

Sweltering Heat Resistance LV2 0/150

Slashing Attack Resistance LV4 0/3000

Piercing Attack Resistance LV2 0/150

Freezing Attribute Resistance LV2 0/150

Extra Skill

Till Death • Learning

◆ Explanation • Till Death • Learning

A skill that would Learn the attacks of an opponent after receiving damage over a certain amount.

Allows the holder to remember the attacks it had once received completely, and be able to endure once attacked again.

The level it has is low, but it became an absurd thing because of the skill's bonus.

The thing on my hand is like this.

Name: #128

Race: Piece of White Cloud

Level: 3

HP: 8280/8280

MP: 0/0
Strength: 9500
Vitality: 12280
Agility: 9800
Magic Powers: 9900

Learned Skills

| Sweltering Heat Resistance LV2 0/150 | Freezing Attribute Resistance LV2 0/150 |

None

The reason why it does not have the Extra Skill is because the core part where the skill is made is not included in it.

It is astonishing that its status has a difference of even near 4000 before and after regenerating.

If I have the cheat of 『Leveling Up Just By Eating』, that monster has the cheat of 『Leveling Up Every Time Defeated』.

The status is also terrible.

|               | Me          | White Cloud |

| Magic Powers: | 10812       | 13900       |

Although there is difference with our skills, honestly speaking, it's a stronger opponent.

Rorona cannot be blamed even if she asks me to run away.

However――.

I ate the White Cloud in my hand.
It smoothly entered my mouth then melted.

Tererettete～.
I leveled up.

Raised Skills

Sweltering Heat Resistance LV3 52/750 (↑50)

It's a turn around in an instant!!!

With my high spirits surging, I released my new technique, Killing Technique with high spirits.

“Certain Kill——Brute-Forcing-With-Status Uppercut!!!”

The enemy that became very hard easily broke and was blown away.
It tried to start regenerating mid-air, but——.

“Burn to dust! Flame Emission Level 6!!”

My strongest Fire Pillar stood up.
The Level 6 Flame Emission in a world where Level 4 are called masters.
That devoured the White Cloud and reached up to the sky.

Its dark armor did not have any meaning.
The strong enemy disappeared leaving its core.

I picked up the shining core and ate it.
Should I describe it as a Bone Senbei? Its crunchy texture tastes salty.
Tererettete～.
I leveled up.

HP: 20833/20833 (↑0)
MP: 20644/20644 (↑9000)
Strength: 20861 (↑0)
Vitality: 23592 (↑0)
Agility: 21079 (↑0)

Magic Powers: 20712 (↑0)

The reason why it did not have battle strength is because it's the core.
My stats did not raise at all other than my MP.
But――.

Learned Skill.
Till Death • Learning

I got an amazing skill!!!

“Eh.....?!”

Rorona who readied her sword became absentminded.

“What happened?”

“The monster right now, I thought it was a very strong enemy though.....”

“Within the enemies that I’ve fought, it was the strongest since the Chicken Four Heavenly Kings’ Byakko.”

“.....!!”

Rorona gritted her teeth.

I really, reaaally understand what she is thinking.

After all, it was the same pattern at the time with Femil.

However, unlike Femil, Rorona is cheeky.

It was because of that, that I could not help but say.

“ 『I shall return the gratitude for saving me!』 .”

“Haggghu!!”

“ 『That’s why, hurry up and run away! Kosakai Kehma!』 .”

“Fuhha.....!”

“FUWAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAANNNNN!!!!”

Rorona put both hands on her head and crouched down.

“I’m sorryyy!! I, I was in the wronggg!!”

I swing my sword.

I said while remembering the day I met Rorona.

“Hmph..... Can you do it?”

“Pleaaaseee stooppp! Staaaaaaaaaaphhhh!!!”

Rorona crawled to my feet and begged while crying.

Fuhahahaha.

It is a complete victory in many ways!!

CHAPTER 36

WHEN THE FIGHT ENDS AND A LEISURE JOURNEY

---

I took care of the monster.

I carried the sleeping girl and returned to where I came from with Rorona.

I heard Laura and Femil's voice from far away.

(Kehma?!!)

(Eh?!)

(There's a devilish smell! That's why I think Kehma's here!!)

(Why in the world can you tell that?!!)

A free trade of tsukkomi was open.

"Kehmaaaa~~~~~!!"

The useless goddess ran to me.

She jumped towards me although I'm carrying a person.

"Is your body alright?! Are you devilishly unscathed?! Blasphemously okay?!!"

"Is there no ordinary adjectives in your vocabulary?!"

"Anyways, anyways, are you alright, okay, fine?!!"

I thought of pinching her cheeks, but I'm carrying a girl right now.

That's why both of my hands are blocked.

So instead, I stepped on Laura's foot.

"Ouchchchchch!!!"

Laura moved both of her hands flutteringly then fell to her butt.

After that, I let her lay flat on her back then stepped on her chest.

"As you can see, I'm devilishly healthy."

"Fueeeeeeeee~n!! Feet hurtsss! Feet heavyyy!! Move ittt~, idioottt~!!"

Laura puts her hands on my foot, trying to move it away.
However, there was no way that I can be moved with the useless goddess's power.
I made a sadistic smile and stepped on Laura as if to rub my feet.

“Fueeeeee~~~~~n!!”

The teary-eyed useless goddess was lovely to the max.
Oh really——I'm such a sadist.

“Fueen~~ ..... Kehma you idiot~ .....”

I let the girl that I carried sleep on the carriage.
The stupid Laura sobbed while she grabbed her chest that I stepped on.
She is slightly cute.

“By the way, where's Rorona-chan?”
“Come to think of it, she isn't around.”
“I feel her presence, behind that tree, though.....”

Femil said when we were talking.
Her bunny ears were fidgeting.
I went there.
She was there.

“Kuu.....”

She sat holding her knees together, burying her face between them.

“What are you doing?”
“Fuha?!!”

Rorona stared at my face and the rest's, then started to panic.
Her eyes became full of tears, her long eyelashes trembled and――.

“~~~~~!!!”

She prostrated.

Its depth was as deep as her forehead buried. It is a serious dogeza that extended up to her elbow.

She whispered as her body and voice trembled.

“I, I, I do not have, t-the face to show you.....

O-On top of saying rude things, I acted in an outrage.....”

It was a confession from her heart.

I think that it is not something that she needs to do a dogeza for, but I understand her feeling of wanting to apologize.

Both Femil and I thought of what words to say to forgive her.

But――.

“.....?”

Laura did not understand.

She made her eyebrows close to each other and tilted her head as she stared at me and Rorona alternately.

“Rorona-chan, did you do something bad again.....?”

“Didn’t I kick you away.....?!”

“Well, that is true, I think that something like that was done to me.....”

Laura glanced at me.

It was written on her face that it wasn’t much comparing it to me who kicked her away then stepped on her as well.

“After kicking you away, I told something bad too.....”

“Did you say something like that.....?”

Laura seriously tilted her head.

“After getting kicked, I remember getting told, 『You are a Great Goddess who will be loved without needing to do anything. I shall do all the work in your stead』 , properly though.....”

She doesn't remember at all———!!!

As expected of a useless goddess. A woman with intelligence lower than a chicken.

“Eh?! Are?! Was it wrong?!”

But, the nuance was something like that right?!!”

“She is forgiving me by, letting it pass by, forgetting about my rudeness huh.....”

“I didn't forget nor I made it pass by you know?!”

After all, it is an important memory!

It is only Rorona-chan who told me, 『You do not need to work. All you need to do is lay around』 you know!!”

“What an excellent character.....!”

Laura was only an idiot, but Rorona was moved.

But despite that, the result is the same, so I think that it is good like that.

I let the adventurers that we picked up ride on the carriage behind, and rode the carriage ahead.

It is a hood-less carriage that one can move immediately in the case of an enemy attack.

Although there were no big shots appearing, mobs would come out normally.

“Orc, 10.....no, 20 huh.”

“Please leave it to me!”

Rorona said while holding her sword.

“No, it's fine. Just rest.”

“But.....”

I landed on the ground, leaving behind Rorona who was about to say something.
I walked leisurely.

“I’ll warn you at the least, you’ll die if you point your clubs to me okay?”
” ” ” Buhiiii!!!! ” ” ”

I warned them, but the orcs attacked even so.
However, their heads dropped the instant they entered 2-meter radius from me.
I slowly turned around.
The orcs stopped for two, three instants, but――.

” ” ” Buhiiii..... ” ” ”

They were dismembered.

“Well then, let’s go.”

I went to the first carriage.
Femil praised me with flushed red cheeks.

“As expected.....♥”

She also flutters her tail.
How cute.

“W-Well, it’s my believer after all!!”

Although Laura crossed her hands while looking to the side, her cheeks were red.
How cute.
And while those two reacted like that, Rorona, she――.

Prostrated.

The second dogeza for today.

“What are you doing.....?”

“I am, embarrassed of myselffff.....!!”

“?”

“Earlier, and now too, Kehma-dono’s skill, it surpasses me in a long way.....!!”

“That’s true, Roro-chan said this and that to Kehma after all~”

“Why did I, have such unfounded confidence.....”

“Well, it is important to know your place after all!”

The second “look who’s talking” for today appeared.

Haiku of the heart.

I artistically tied up Laura’s twin tails.

“Fueee~~~~~n! Yaaa~~~~~n! Fueeeeee~~~~~n!!!”

Laura moaned with a ( $> \triangle <$ ) face, but I did not stop.

I made a spiral conch on Laura’s head.

“Kehma, you’re crueel.....”

“It can’t be helped right? It’s fun after all.”

“What can’t be helped with that?!!”

“My.....heart, that is.”

“Don’t say the lowest things like it’s coooool!!!”

“Hahaha.”

I laughed refreshingly and untied Laura’s spiral conch.

I changed it to a wavy long hair, and combed her.

Laura’s hair is soft and silky, it feels good to touch.

“I mean, you, you smell very good huh.”

I embraced Laura.

“I-I-I-I-Isn’t that natural!! A Goddess! That’s what I am!”

Laura's words were arrogant, but her face was red.
I can tell her heart racing very quickly because we are so close.
She is so cute to cherish.

CHAPTER 37

LIGHT WORK AND KEHMA'S RESOLUTION

---

And while doing this and that, the time for lunch has come.

"Maybe I should make something exquisite today."

Being in a good mood, I started to check the ingredients inside the carriage.
I received this and that from the elf village, so there are ample of them.

"Ground meat, green lettuce, there's also bread and egg huh....."

There are also lots of condiments.

Salt and sugar, of course, there are also spices, vinegar, olive oil, etc.

A certain idea came up to me.

I should make it.....

I should make.....that.....!

I took out eggs, vinegar, salt, pepper, and mustard.

"Kehma-sama!!"

"Kehma-dono!!"

Femil and Rorona came to me.

" " Is there anything that I can help with?!! " "

The two of them said at the same time.

"If it's like that, Femil, can you make hamburgers with this ground meat?"

"Yes!!"

"Rorona, look at me intently."

"L-Look at K-Kehma-dono.....?"

Rorona suddenly flushed her cheeks red and stared at me.
Her lips pursed, and with wet eyes “Jii～……”, she stared at me.

“No, sorry, I didn’t mean that.”
“Fuha?!”

Rorona flinched and regained her sanity.

“S-S-S-Sorry!! Kehma-dono!!
I-It’s not like I had that in mind!!”
“That?”

“No! It’s……! Fuaaan……”

Rorona covered her face that was dyed with red with both of her hands.
It is difficult to say whether she likes me or admires me, but she a very easy woman huh<sup>1</sup>.

I took the eggs, vinegar, salt, pepper, and mustard.
Also, I took with me the oil that is the most important.

“What I meant by look at me is, look at how I work.”
“U-Umu!”

Rorona made a small nod.
I cracked the egg to a nearby square box.
And opened it with my right hand.

The passive skill that I have——the Breaking Raw Egg with Right Hand activated.
In this world where level 4 is called as masters and monsters with level 5, it is a one-handed breaking egg that is level 6.
The cracked egg showed an artistic distortion by gravity and fell beautifully into the container.

The egg that fell because of the level 6 skill was really beautiful.
It was like a full moon shining endlessly.

It has been a while since I opened an egg, but it looks like my skills have yet to deteriorate.

“Fufufu.....”

I am satisfied.

“Kehma-dono.....?”

Rorona continued to work albeit a little confused.

I separated the whites of the egg from the yolk, and placed the yolk into a bowl.

I also added vinegar, mustard, salt, and spices.

It would be great if there is an eggbeater, but I used the fork since there is none.

I mixed it like GashaGashaGasha.

“Kehma-dono.”

“n?”

“Are you not, putting the oil?”

“That’s the trick and point.”

“I-Is that so.....”

I took the oil-filled cup.

It’s about 120cc per one egg yolk.

I can only estimate since there is no measuring cup, but I believe my Egg Cooking LV2.

“Just like this, it’s important to pour it while making fine lines okay?”

“U-Umu.....!”

Rorona nodded albeit confused.

She cannot be blamed, after all, she was not informed about what she is making.

However, if it was not slowly poured, the vinegar and oil will separate.

Just like the proverb oil and water, vinegar and oil are food that repels each other like with water.

And adding the egg yolk there as an intermediary is the point of this dish.

That’s why, one must make the egg yolk permeate with the vinegar properly or else it would not mix properly.

And adding to that, vinegar must be added first.

If oil were added first, it would have a sticky texture.

The common mistake when making this dish is when oil was added first.

I mixed it slowly while looking at the egg and oil connect carefully.

Just like the water-filled bamboo tube which clacks against a stone when emptied in a Japanese garden, it is wabi-sabi<sup>2</sup>.

Just like that, the condiment that was born, Mayonnaise.

It is a seasoning that appeals to the instinct of human beings that is said to prefer light acidity and oil content.

I licked the fork.

“Good mayonnaise.”

(Goku!)

Rorona gulped with her fine throat.

“Does Rorona want to taste too?”

“I-Is it alright.....?”

“I won’t ask you if it is.”

“But.....”

Rorona looked at the fork and my lips alternately.

“Do you hate it since I took a lick first?”

“No, I do not mean that at all!”

Rorona said while stepping forward and held my hand.

She closed her eyes and started to breathe roughly.

Her tongue showed, her face turned as if she was licking something that needs to have a mosaic.

(Chiro....., chiro! chiro!)

It's sexy.
Her face is so sexy.
Her hand that holds my hand is hot as well.
I feel like I might become weird.

"A.....Anyways, if you're finished, make some mayonnaise just like how I did it right now."
"U.....Umu!!"

Rorona nervously nodded.
She started to work.
It looks like its going well although she seems to be a little stiff.
I looked towards Femil.

It looks like Femil was diligently working with her back facing mine.
Her cute tail and butt were swaying charmingly.
Femil who seem to be a half bunny beast-kin and dog beast-kin has bunny ears and dog tail.

How sly.
How sly it is really.
I decided to harass her sexually.

"How's it going?"
"Hyan!!"

I embraced her from behind and kneaded her breasts.

"What happened? Your hands have stopped."
"Kehma-samaa～.....!"

She gave me a voice of pleading, but I did not mind and continued to knead.

"Auu～～～～n..... Ah! Hyaaauuu.....!!"

Femil completed her job even though she moaned charmingly.
Good girl.

“Is there nothing for me?!”
“You want to be touched too?”
“Kyaa!!”

Laura who had her huge breasts poked shouted while covering her own chest.

“Not that! Idiot! Kehma you pervert!”
“Then what is it?”
“I’m in a good mood today, so I’m saying I’ll especially work for today!”

The shitty useless goddess Laura who loves to laze around seem to be a little lonely because everyone else other than her is working.
What a troublesome personality.

“If so, go crack some eggs for Rorona.”
“I got it! This Goddess’s Great and Famous Egg Breaking Technique, watch it with close attention!!”

The idiot Laura needlessly raised the hurdle.
It cannot be helped, so I looked at her silently.

“Kufufufu, fu.....”

Laura’s hands were awkward.
The hand that holds the egg was shaking.
Even her eyes that stared at the solid box seemed dangerous.

That’s a crazy person’s eyes that have killers as their main diet.
There is no doubt that if a clueless exorcist is in here, they would start a ceremony to seal an evil god.
And Laura――.

She crushed the egg with her hand.

The white egg became something like a crushed snail.
Humpty Dumpty was carried by Laura,
Humpty Dumpty was crushed by Laura,
All the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't put Humpty together again.

"Fueeen, Kehmaa～ ....."

Laura felt disgusted of the whites and yellows of the egg that mixed in her hand and got teary eyed.

"Are you hurt?"

"It hurts a little....."

The tip of her pointing hand was slightly torn by the egg's shell.

"Oh really, it cannot be helped."

"Fueeeen....."

I took Laura's hand while she felt downhearted and wiped the egg with a cloth.

"Heal."

"T-T-T-This time, Kehma's kind huh!!"

"Ah?"

"Since it's Kehma, I thought that you'd say something like 『Don't fucking waste food!』 , and make me lick the egg off the floor!!"

What's with that?

Even I could not think of that.

But――.

"There was such thing huh."

I grabbed Laura's head.

"No, no way, no way right? It's a joke right?!

Yaaaaaaaaaaaaaaan!! Noooooooooooooooooo!!

No, no, no, don't, stop, pleaseeeeeee——————!!!"

She hated it more than I expected to I let go of her head.

"Kehma you idiot!! Idiot, idiot, idiot!! You sadistic demon!!"

"Isn't demon a little too much? I didn't acted on it after all."

"Well, that is true....."

It was a slightly irrational objection, but Laura was convinced.

"But, since you're not a demon, uhmmm....."

She deeply thought of this and that, and said in the end.

"Kehma you angel!"

"Eh?!"

"Kehma you angel! Idiot!! Great and Famous Sadistic Angel!!!!"

It was the unexpected angel recognition.

I mean, what kind of existence is that? Great and Famous Sadistic Angel?

Is that a mohawk-haired burly man with spikes on his shoulders?

『Hyahhaa! Bury those fucking trash properly, make them bloom beautiful flowers!!』

『You damn worthless old man! I'd be like healing that damn broken waist in a jiffy!!』

『Grow up and get fatter! You fucking starved kitten!!』

I could not help but imagine such thing.

However, if it's like that, it's a good person.

That's why, I'm a good person huh!

I should continue bullying Laura from now on!

1. Choroi(チヨロい) – easy or simple. Mostly used in light/web novels for heroines who falls in love with the MC very easily.
2. Wabi-sabi(侘寂) – is a world view centered on the acceptance of transience and imperfection

CHAPTER 38

IDIOT GIRL GODDESS AND SADISTIC ANGEL

~EATING HAMBURGER~

---

Laura was an idiot as usual, but the dish was completed successfully.

“Kehma-dono, what in the world, is this.....?”

“From how its shape, it looks like something like a sandwich.....”

“It’s also a dish I saw for the first time!”

I said.

I cannot say that the bread part was completely reproduced, but the lettuce and mayonnaise can be seen from the edge of its round form.

And the sauce I made myself really looked hamburger.

“Kehma-dono, there is no spoon or fork though.....”

“It means, like this.....?”

“It really looks exciting!”

Rorona and Laura grabbed the hamburger.

“Fuwa! Wa! Wa!”

“Kyauu?!”

The lettuce inside almost fell off.

The two of them caught it with their mouth in a hurry.

Hamu! Hamu! Hamu!

They only ate the lettuce with a (> <) face.

It is also very hamburger because that happens when you're off-guard.

I also opened my mouth with a peaceful feeling. My teeth sunk into the bread. The crispy texture of the lettuce, mayonnaise that entangled with my tongue. The bread that absorbed meat juice.

The meat that was cooked well had a crisp response.

I tasted it.

The lettuce, meat, and bread that entwined with the thick sauce, mayonnaise, became three into one and melted.

And when I have gotten used to that taste, the pickle's sourness.

That thing that spread slowly had the best accent.

Tererettete～.

I leveled up.

Tererettete～.

My level went up.

Level: 1495→1498

Learned Skills

Life Force Strengthening LV1 1/50

In addition to simply leveling up, my High Charge's proficiency increased.
This is a powerful skill that would multiply tackle-type attacks by 1.5x.
The ingredients of the meat is probably that type.
The Life Force Strengthening skill that I learned is like this.

◆ Life Force Strengthening

In the case where a method of recovery is used during times of near death, the recovery amount would be multiplied by 1.2x.

It's a plain but useful skill.
Its multiplier would probably increase as well if the skill levels up.
As expected of hamburger.
And, there was also a gibberish skill.

H A H A H A @ LV1 1/50

What the heck is that?
I read the explanation.

H A H A H A is the soul of a person who frequently eats hamburgers.
Those who popular humans who gained this skill laughs H A H A H A when told a joke.

Is that a skill?!

It's true that people who frequently eat hamburger——it is the impression of laughs of Americans, but could that be treated as a skill?!

I did not know that at all.....

It was a result that made me want to consider how to treat hamburgers from now on. Besides me who was dumbstruck, the girls who would not gain such skill even if they eat hamburgers shouted their impressions.

“Fueeen!! Delicious!!!
This white thing in the lettuce is so thick, and it melts inside my mouthhh!!”

“It’s delicious! Kehma-sama!!”

” ” Such a delicious thing, it’s the first time I ate one! ” ”

Not to mention Laura, even Rorona, Femil, and the adventurers that we saved liked it a lot.

As expected of America’s soul food. It’s the soul’s tongue dance.

However, the God that lives on Earth made the world with just seven days.

And obviously, payment comes later on because of such bad construction work.

And that payment, it comes to the hamburger.

In other words――.

“Fueeen....., Kehmaaa～. My hand, it’s so stickyyy～～.....”

Your hands gets dirty.

“Oh really, what a helpless useless goddess.”

I took Laura’s hand and licked it.

I licked the sauce that stuck on her white, beautiful hand.

“Hyaaan! Annn! W-W-W-W-What are you doing!! Idiot!!!”

“I took it off right? There was sauce in your hand.”

“You didn’t need to lick it!”

“It can’t be helped right? After all, I thought that you’d hate it if I licked it.”

“Isn’t that strange for a reason?!?!?!?”

“Men have things that they must do even if it is something strange!!”

“Don’t say that coolly!!”

I was scolded, but it is Laura who said it so I simply ignored it.

I suddenly looked towards Rorona and Femil.

(Haggu!)

(Auu.....)

Both of them had sauce in their hand.

“I-I-I-I-I-I’m fine!!”

“I-I’m also fine, alright!!!”

The two of them hid their hands and said that.

We arrived at the town.

We received the quest differently, so we parted with Rorona and went to report.

“Ehehee～. Salary, I’m looking forward to it～ ♪ Right, Kehma～ ♪”

Laura had a happy smile in her face, but I thought that we would not receive that much. We talked about the White Cloud that attacked the adventurers, but they said that it would not be recognized if we don’t bring something to prove it.

That’s why we would only get the daily salary that we decided upon beforehand.

The receptionist Onee-san brought a tray with the reward on it.

“This will be the rewards for this time.”

There were 3 gold coins there.

“Just theseee?!?!?!?!”

“Eh?! Ah, yes.....”

“Why?! Why?! We spent so many days, why is there only 3 gold coins?!!”

“About you, you didn’t even work for a second.”

“Fueee～～～～～n.”

The idiot goddess got quiet after having her cheeks pinched.

“I mean, in fact, it’s about this much.”

“Although the actual wage would be 600000 Barse, you bought two clothes made out of Mithril Thread that is 300000 Barse each, so.....”

“Getting 3 gold coins more is rather a bonus huh.”

“If it were announced that there is a 2-month escort quest that has a reward of mithril thread clothes and 3 gold coins, 90% of the adventurers in our guild would rush to accept the quest.”

“I see, huh.”

I got convinced, picked up the gold coins, and put it in my bag.

“Let’s cancel it! Kehma!”

“Ha.....?”

“Let’s treat it as the quest has yet to be completed and wander around outside the town!

If we wander around for about ten days, since it’s 10000 and ten days, umm, uhmmm.....”

The useless goddess Laura used both of her hands to calculate such a simple problem.

“It’s 150000 Barse!!”

On top of that, she got it wrong.

The desire to get money had distorted her reality.

“It’s 150000 Barse just wandering around you know!

Don’t you think that the only choice we have is to wander around?!!”

What a useless goddess.

She’s too amazing in so many sense.

It is not only what she says that is absurd, the place where she’s saying it is absurd too. Something like talking about dishonesty in front of the guild? Isn’t that something like planning a terrorist attack in front of a police station?

Not to mention the receptionist Onee-san, even the clerks at the back were stunned.

In a sense, the terrorist attack succeeded.

In the sense of suicide bombing.

I grabbed the back of the useless goddess’s head.

“Fuehee〜”

She probably thought that she was being patted.
The useless goddess showed a comfortable smile.
That smile that shows her pearl white teeth was lovely as a child's showing her uncle her test with perfect results.

This smile, I want to protect it.
I would really want to say that if I ignored the flow of things earlier.
However, I know what she just did earlier.

Gosshaa!

I slammed Laura's face into the receptionist counter.

"Please be at ease! There is absolutely no way that I would accept this thing's suggestion!"

The dynamic sincerity that I showed put off the receptionists.
However, in such apology, people would believe it the more exaggerated it is.
I was unable to protect Laura's smile.

"Fueeen, Kehma's so baaaad....."

Inside the town.
The idiot Laura moaned while pressing her forehead.
I told her.

"What's bad is your rotten brain."
"You're really so crueeel!!"

The idiot protested, but I did not hear anything.
Since I did not hear anything, it was the same as having no protest.

"Kehma-dono!"

When I was talking with the idiot, Rorona towards me.

“What’s up? Rorona.”

“Kehma-dono’s reward!!”

A small bag full of gold coins.

I took a quick look, there was at least 30 of them.

“What’s with this?”

“The reward that Kehma-dono must’ve received!”

“???”

Rorona took out a small vial from her pocket.

“I have used the elixir called Dragon Potion in the fight earlier!

That fact became a proof that we fought against such a monster!”

“Is it alright with just that?”

“That is trust towards me——an executive of Golden Prairie.”

That’s amazing.

“Anyways, anyways, it’s like that!

So Kehma-dono, please accept the subjugation reward!”

“If so, then I’ll gladly take it.

I received the gold coins.

However, Rorona stared at me feverishly.

“Is there anything else?”

“D-D-Do you have anything at hand right now?!!

I want to work for Kehma-dono who I am grateful to!!”

“Even if you say that.....”

Since I have money, there's nothing to do too.....

"Do you have something? Laura."

"Relaxing while laying around!!"

It was an instant answer.

"I want to live relaxing while laying around without doing anything in the inn leisurely!!"

"You did nothing at all on that journey with a carriage, on top of that, you still.....want to laze around?"

Trash.....!! Garbage.....!!

This useless goddess, trash.....!! Garbage.....!!

I grabbed Laura's collar and said as if you give away a kitten.

"If so, can you throw this thing into the river?"

"Why?!! Why throw?!! I didn't do anything you know?!"

"I'm throwing you away since you aren't doing anything though."

"Why, why, why?!! Even I, uhmmm.....I'm a mascot right?!! A mascot that must be loved!

Or maybe a vault!! A vault where important treasures are packed in!!!

Don't you think that throwing away a vault because it doesn't do anything is weird?!?!?!"

The useless goddess that does not want to work, not to mention a goddess's, she even threw away her dignity as a human being.

She's really, already, a Super Useless Goddess.

"But, rather than a vault, it's like a pig carrying baggage....."

"How cruel are you really?!"

I released a blow towards Laura's stomach seeing her receive a shock.

"Gyafu.....!!"

Laura lost her consciousness instantaneously.

“Yare yare huh.”

I carried Laura on my shoulder.

“Laura lost her consciousness. Sorry, but, I need to return to the inn.”

“Rather than lost, wasn’t she forced to do so?!!”

“That is what they call difference with perspectives.”

“What?!!”

I carried Laura back.

I’m such a good person, not throwing her away and taking care of her although she is such a useless goddess.

Laura who called me Sadistic Angel is pretty much correct.

Was it because I felt pleasant? The skill activated without warning.

“H A H A H A.”

CHAPTER 39

RORONA-CHAN IS DILIGENT

---

Chun.....ChunChun.

Morning came.

The cries of yellow birds that resemble sparrows echoes to the ears.

I woke up with cloudy eyes.

I felt something weird.

Something very big is in front of my eyes.

I casually reached out my hand.

It felt Funyaa.

It is as soft as breasts and felt like MunyuMunyu.

However, I am not familiar with it.

It is a little small to be Laura's and too big to be Femil's.

Its size is probably, C or D.

Since it is something like breasts and I'm not familiar with it, is it something like breasts yet not breasts?

Clueless because I have just awakened, I buried my face in the valley of those two things.

I grabbed those plump mountains and pressed them to my cheeks.

Funyuu ~. Funyuu ~.

Amazing~, amazing~.

I heard a voice when I was enjoying that.

"Fuwa.....! Ah.....! K-K-K-K-Kehma-dono?!!"

It's Rorona's voice.

"What misconduct are you doing in the morning?!"

Of course, I do not mind if Kehma-dono really wishes for my body, but if you have mercy, please give me some time to prepare my heart——what in the world am I talking about?!?!?!?”

Rorona who fell into confusion by herself shouted by herself.
It's me who wants to know what the heck you are talking about.

“I mean, why are you here.....?”
“That's the line I should say!!”

Rorona shouted.

“Yesterday, I, I noticed that Kehma-dono have dodged my question.

I have thought deeply whether should I or should I not go after you for three hours, but I felt that it is very sad if we parted ways just like that.

And so, I asked Lilina-oneecha.....no, I asked Aneue the inn that Kehma-dono uses! Lady Asha, the store owner recommended some alcohol, but I drank too much when I planned on drinking just to accompany her, and after that, I was guided to Laura-jou and Femil-jou's room, and slept, after that, I woke up to go to the toilet once, and when I returned.....it's my fault?!?!”

“Jesus's power is too strong, and it's reaching Christ's level.”

“Fuaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaan!!!

I am yet to be married, but to think I would sneak in a gentlemen's futonnnnnnnnnn!!!!!!!!!!”

“Rather than that, what did you come for?”

“I, I, I want to work for Kehma-dono.....”

“Your feelings are enough though.”

“Hagghu.....!”

Rorona became crestfallen.

Her elf ears also feel like “shuuu ~ ~ n.....”.

「You don't need to get so.....」

「I, I, I cannot show my worth of existence, if I do not work.....」

I listened to Rorona's story.

About her grandfather being an existence that abandoned his comrades.

About her mother being an existence that had thrown her away.

About her, being persecuted because of that, and being saved by Lilina.

However, on the other side――.

“That's why, I need, I need to work.....”

She became apprehended by such thoughts.

For me, I think that is preferable, but Rorona herself would seem to have a hard time.

It can be said that she is in a situation that she would spend her days, with a close feeling to being forced to run while being whipped.

I told her.

“I got it.”

Rorona's face turned to something bright.

“Follow me.”

“Umu!”

Rorona followed me while literally wagging her tail.

She has a beast-kin blood together with her elf blood, so she has elf ears and a dog tail.

“What are we going to do? Kehma-dono! Is it an escort mission? Ore extraction? If it is Kehma-dono's order, I shall follow whatever it is you know?!”

I told Rorona who was wagging her tail fired up to work.

“Get lazy.”

“Haghu.....?”

“For a while, get lazy laying around without doing anything.”

“In short, are you telling me to die.....?!”

Rorona took out a knife and pointed it at her neck.

“Why did it become like that?!!”

“The me who does not work, does not have any worth.....”

“I’m telling you to stop working for a while to wipe away that preconception!!”

“Hagghu! Uu! I see.....”

I opened the room’s door.

I saw Femil who was in the middle of changing, more specifically, in the midst of taking off her panties, and Laura who was sleeping lazily.

“K-K-K-K-Kehma-sama?!!”

Femil covered her bare chest with both hands.

“Today’s Femil is lovely as well.”

I stroked her unguarded butt.

“Kehma-sama’s, so ecchi desuu〜.....”

Femil stiffened her body and endured my sexual harassment.

Although I’m the one who did it, I feel like it’s the lowest, but there is no problem since Femil’s tail on her butt is swaying.

“Kehma-dono.....”

Did she remember what happened earlier? Rorona hides both of her breasts.

Although she flushed her cheeks with embarrassment, she stared at me with eyes asking for prudence.

I looked towards Laura.

“Kuu〜n. MunyaMunya. Ehhee〜♥”

Laura showed a very unkempt, useless goddess’s sleeping face.

If I took a picture of her and named it 『Useless Goddess』 and send it to concours, I might get a prize.

“Look at this. I haven’t thrown her away although she’s such a good for nothing right?”

“But, Kehma-dono.....”

“n?”

“Is it not because it is Laura-dono, that she is being loved even Laura-dono shows such an appearance.....?”

“It’s not like she’s being loved though.”

“Isn’t that worse?!!”

“Well, anyway, no one would throw away Rorona even if she rests just for a bit.

If there were someone, those would be trash, so you don’t need to worry about them.”

“Is it something like that.....?”

“It’s something like that. Those who would give up on you so easily, doesn’t want Rorona, but just tools.”

“Is it really, something like that.....?”

“Aren’t I telling you it’s like that?”

Rorona got tearful.

She really thinks that she would not be cherished if she does not sacrifice herself.

“I won’t say that that kind of feelings are unneeded, but isn’t Rorona only full of that?

If you do not rest well moderately and get spoiled somewhere, your heart will die.”

“Kuun.....”

Rorona shrunk her body and groaned like a puppy.

Laura woke up.

“n.....morning~, Kehma.....”

“Un, good morning.”

Laura who had just woken up had a messy hair.

I patted her lightly.

“Ehhee〜♥”

Laura showed a lovely smile. Especially her teeth that slightly shows, it is very cute. Really, she is very cute when it only comes to her appearance.

“Ne〜, Kehmaa〜. I’m hungryy〜〜”

“What do you want to eat?”

“Something deliciousss〜”

“I see.”

I turned around and went towards the door.

Rorona was very surprised.

“If you want to eat something, shouldn’t you just go get it yourself……?”

“But, Kehma, he said that he’d get some for mee……”

“I see……”

Rorona took out a memo pad and wrote it carefully.

Its paper is white.

White paper in this world is somewhat valuable.

If it is a memo pad, it would cost 3000 Barse for each one.

To think that she would write such a useless thing in one page of that……

Rorona is very diligent.

However, thanks to spoiling her every day, she was finally able to get herself pampered while having confidence in herself.
